

THE TRENT CAMPAIGN FOR MOMENTOUS CHANGE

LADY EATON COLLEGE ENDOWMENT FUND CASE FOR SUPPORT

“

At Lady Eaton College we are all about coming together to have fun, support one another, and create something special in our community,”

DR. CHRISTINE FREEMAN-ROTH,
College Principal

ABOUT LADY EATON COLLEGE

At Lady Eaton College (LEC), tradition meets youthful passion in a welcoming, energetic community that bursts with “LEC” pride and the spirit of Gemütlich (feeling comfortably at home, welcomed by friends). Our namesake is a brilliant and inspiring Canadian, Lady Flora McCrea Eaton, who challenged us to “Have an open mind, trust, learn every day, and keep doing it as long as you live.”

We believe that momentous change happens when we cross disciplinary boundaries to tackle society’s biggest challenges. For this reason, LEC is home to a range of departments, and centres including the Medical Professional Stream, Gender and Social Justice, Arts and Science, and the Trent Centre for Language and Linguistics, as well as academic programs such as Social Work, History, Philosophy, and Ancient Greek and Roman Studies. And, yes, it all takes place in a triumph of modernist architecture, artfully designed to sit snuggled in a breathtaking natural setting.

LECers live the motto in our heraldry, Sapientia et Humanitas, striving for wisdom and humanity in all that we do.

“

I support the LEC Endowment fund and have included Trent in my will because the student experience, which I found so positive, will never be fully funded by government. It has to be funded by those who came before.”

Krista Scaldwell '86

“

I feel warm, welcomed and accepted each time I step foot inside the doors at LEC — and it’s an experience that I will cherish for the rest of my life.”

Hayden Wice '18 (History)

HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

Lady Eaton College Endowment funds will build on the unique collegiate foundation laid by our visionary founder, Dr. Tom Symons, to spark unforgettable moments of growth in the students who entrust us to do so. The Endowment will help us:

Restore college spaces to the mid-century modern glory dreamed up over 50 years ago by Ron Thom, one of Canada's greatest architects. Crucial to extra-curricular activities, these rooms host choir practices, paint nights, lively seminars and so much more.

Build an outdoor education space where students can flourish in connection to each other and the incredible natural setting of the college.

Welcome accomplished and inspiring alumni, artists, experts, and thought leaders to our residency programs, which will help make critical connections between course work and the complex challenges of our day.

Your contribution to the Lady Eaton College Endowment fund will make a lasting impact on the lives of Lady Eaton students today, tomorrow, and for years to come.

Visit Lady Eaton College Endowment for more information and to donate. Thank you!

“

LEC was my home during some of my most fundamental developments as a person and it remains one of my favorite places to reflect upon.”

Chris Fountain '94
(Economics)

“

LEC has always felt like a second home to me. From the moment I walked into the quad on move-in day I felt safe and welcomed into the LEC community. Three years later I still feel the same way when I step into the quad.”

Maya Thomas '18 (Political Studies)

A TIME FOR MOMENTOUS CHANGE

The world around us continues to change at an unprecedented pace and requires agile, responsive, and future-ready graduates. At Trent, we believe that a healthy, sustainable future requires broad perspectives and collaboration at the intersection of disciplines. It requires us to challenge our own knowledge and belief systems, and to exchange ideas within a vibrant intellectual community – our colleges.

Trent's colleges have been at the centre of the student experience for more than 50 years. Colleges are more than residences, dining halls and classroom spaces. The collegiate system is where new ideas flourish, where students from all corners of the world are pushing the boundaries of knowledge as they learn and discover together.

Your investment in Trent's colleges is an investment in a brighter future for all.
